

Please do not weaken the WI "no call" law. If anything, the law should be strengthened with stiffer penalties. You need to put consumers first instead of telemarketers, and stop companies from interfering with customers who have terminated their services. Our law must remain as it is, we love it!